An Angel

By MARTHA McCULLOCH-WILLIAMS

Copyright, 1904, by P. C. Eastman

Margaret came from the orchard whistling cheerily, a heaped basket of jewel red apples poised carefully upon her bare brown head. Miss Prudence Heathcote, her aunt and guardian, frowned at the whistling, but had to smile a bit when Margaret broke out:

"Now, Prudence, precious, come at me with the saying about whistling girls and crowing hens! I know you hate my sole musical accomplishment, but this day is enough to set a graven image whistling, even dancing, if it was of anything softer than granite. It is a place enchanted. I didn't know until now that things so prosaic as apple gathering and cork making could set themselves to music."

"H-m," Miss Prudence said. "H-m! May I ask if Jimmy Blair is out there, as he promised to be?"

"Of course! A gentleman keeps his promises, doesn't he?" Margaret answered, tossing her head, but flushing in spite of herself.

Again Miss Prudence said "H-m." There appeared to be nothing else to say. But after two minutes she got up and moved toward the kitchen, sighing out: "And of course he'll be here to dinner. That means cooking things. Men do have such atrocious appetites."

"I'm glad they do," Margaret retorted shamelessly. "I've got one to match anybody. Oh, Aunt Prue, do make a potato pudding! Make it very rich and have lots of thick, sweet, rich lemon sauce."

"Go 'way, you baggage!" Miss Prudence said over her shoulder. "I've told you what Jimmy likes best? 'Tis the greatest mind to make dried apple pies, just to see if he would know the difference," smiling at Margaret as she spoke the last sentence.

Margaret blushed very red and began to pout. "You mean Jimmy is so gone on me he's not in his right mind," she said. "But you're all wrong, Aunt Prue. I—I don't believe he cares for me a bit—hardly. Not half way, at least. All this week he's been as kind as could be, but distant—as if he was afraid I wouldn't understand."

"Then there's mischief afoot, what sort I've got to find out," Miss Prudence said vigorously, her hand on the door knob, "for if ever any lad was clean out of his head, clean idiotic about a girl of a thing, it was Jimmy about you, all last week and all the weeks before it, since you came to stay with me."

"Mischief afoot, but where?" she kept repeating to herself as she whisked about the trim kitchen her brows puckered, her eyes light and speculative. On the surface she could see nothing. Nobody had openly any right or reason to be interfering between the pair. Jimmy was an orphan the same as her Peggy. Moreover, he had never had the least shadow of an entanglement. True, various and sundry young women had been setting their caps at him—pretty caps, modestly set—but he had overlooked them all—unless it were—Miss Prue gave a great start. There was the root of the trouble; its name, Vidella Bane. Jimmy had had her made up to her in the weeks just before Peggy came. Now that she thought of it, he had squirmed Della to church two Sundays running, besides buying many things for her at the strawberry supper and fair. And Della, it was well known, wanted to marry and settle herself. She had three younger sisters crowding her in the home nest. Naturally she would do what she could to hold Jimmy, the best chance in all Easton town.

But how she had done it! Miss Prudence could not fathom, although she studied the problem almost to the detriment of her dinner. She sat down to it still puzzled. Jimmy greeted her and the dinner rapidly and talked a great deal of his appetite and of many other things, but somehow did not eat with his usual zest, although he made a fair meal. Nobody with a palate could help doing that with such things as Miss Prudence set before him. Jimmy assured Margaret more than once that if she cooking ran in the family her future husband was the luckiest fellow alive.

"I think so too. That's why it's so provoking not to have him come along," Margaret said at last. "Only think, Jimmy, I'm almost twenty-one and have never had a real business beau! Isn't it shameful when Aunt Prue is going to tell me all her pretty dishes and the Heathcote silver? Fancy an heiress without a sweetheart!"

"Such destitution is painful—so painful I hardly believe it exists," Jimmy said, turning away his head, then breaking in consequently into talk of something else.

Miss Prudence, watching him, saw that his teeth had set before he could speak. Of the seeing came enlightenment in part. She meant to make it whole before she was much older. So as soon as dinner was over she set Margaret upon an errand and herself drew Jimmy out to the barn with a pretext of wanting his advice as to the new hayloft and stalls. She was a straight speaking person, womanly, without coyness. So as soon as they were inside the stall space she wheeled upon Jimmy, asking plumply, "What cock and bull story has Della Bane told you?"

"Who said she told me anything?" Jimmy retorted. "Besides, she didn't need to. My eyes are fairly trustworthy."

"Sure of it?" Miss Prudence asked. "If you are, please to tell me what they have told you about my Peggy."

"I know you think you've got a grievance—no, not exactly a grievance, but a hurt."

"It is a hurt, but I don't blame her for it. I can't—she must have met the other fellow first," Jimmy said, turning away his head. Miss Prudence stamped her foot. "What other fellow?" she demanded.

Jimmy answered miserably: "The one I saw her kissing and hugging Saturday out under the chestnut trees. She was all dressed up, in white and low necked, and they were carrying on like mad, else I shouldn't have seen them. I—I started to go up when I heard her talking, but after I caught a word or two sneaked away like a whipped hound."

"No doubt?" Miss Prudence said angrily, "but tell me this—where did you sneak to? Went straight home, I reckon, and after supper over to the Baneses. That right?" Jimmy nodded.

"Now tell me straight what Miss Della told you and how she came to do it."

"I won't!" Jimmy said stoutly. "I'm no tattler. I'd seen enough, and Della said it had made me mighty miserable. All she did was to set me right—let me know Margaret was—"

"Playing possum with her?" Miss Prudence broke in. "Did she tell you that—told you how girls have been practicing against the church social?" Della was dressed up in man's clothes and my Peggy playing sweetheart to her. I know, I was there, up on the big dead trunk, holding the play book and laughing fit to kill. Now, don't you wish you had sneaked the other way?"

"You—you don't mean there isn't any other fellow?" Jimmy cried incredulously.

"Miss Prudence sniffed. "Of course I don't mean any such thing. There are twenty other fellows—bound to be with a girl like Margaret—but I don't believe she likes any of them best unless it is the very chinkedhead I'm talking to right now."

"Miss Prudence" Jimmy ejaculated, then caught her tight in his arms. He was shaking like a leaf, as near to laughing as to crying.

Thus Margaret came upon them and called out roguishly: "Is it to be really Uncle Jimmy? Well, I don't mind so long as we have you in the family."

"It's to be anything in the world you say," Jimmy said, darting to her. Then he caught both her hands and held them against his breast he turned a beaming face upon Miss Prudence, saying: "Peggy is sweet enough, pretty enough for anything, but when it comes to looking like an angel to a man in trouble, why, she'll never be in it with our Aunt Prue."

The Cause of It.
"In a village which is a suburb of New Bedford," said Mark Twain, "a friend of mine took me to the dedication of a town hall and pointed out to me a humped, weather beaten old man over ninety years old. 'Do you see any passion in that old man?' he said to me. 'You don't? Well, but I can make him a perfect volcano to you. I'll just mention to him something very casually.' And he did. Well, that old man suddenly gave vent to an outburst such as I had never heard in my life before. 'I listened to him with that delight with which one listens to an artist. The cause of it was this: When that old man was a young sailor he came back from a three year cruise and found the whole town had taken the pledge. He hadn't, so he was ostracized. Finally he made up his mind he couldn't stand ostracism any longer, and he went to the secretary and said, 'Put my name down for that temperance society of yours.' Next day he left on another three year cruise. It was torture to watch his men drinking and he pledged not to. Finally he got home. He got a jug of liquor, ran to the society and said, 'Take my name right off.' 'It isn't necessary,' said the secretary. 'You never were a member; you were blackballed.'"

Concerning Oranges.
An eminent Japanese bacteriologist has shown that the acids of lemons, apples and other fruits—citric acid, malic acid—are capable of destroying all kinds of disease germs. Cholera germs are killed in fifteen minutes by lemon juice or apple juice, and typhoid fever germs are killed in half an hour by these acids, even when concentrated in a glass of water containing cholera germs and let it stand fifteen or twenty minutes you may drink the water with impunity, as the germs will be dead. These juices will kill other disease germs. Instead of telling a man to have his stomach washed out we can now tell him to drink orange juice, which will cleanse the stomach as thoroughly as a stomach tube, provided it be not a case of gastric catarrh. If we have to deal with gastric catarrh, in which there is a large amount of tenacious mucus adhering to the walls of the stomach, a stomach tube to dislodge it is required, but in ordinary cases of biliousness, foul tongue, bad breath, sick headache and nervous headache a fruit diet is a wonderful purifier.

His Statement.
Dr. Price (phonetically)—I don't know whether I sent you a statement of what—er—you owe me. Mr. Knook—Neither do I. Dr. Price—Oh, you didn't get it then? I suppose I didn't send you a statement. Mr. Knook—Yes, you did. But it looked more like a statement of what you think I possess.

Knew Her Way.
Mr. Gayboy—What did my wife say when you told her I wouldn't be able to come home tonight? A late hour? Messenger—She didn't say anything. Mr. Gayboy—Then you must have gone to the wrong house!—Chicago Tribune.

TRAINING DOGS.

Poodles the Easiest to Teach, Dachshunds the Most Difficult.

A poodle is the easiest of all to train, and the dachshund is the most difficult, but because he is too stupid, a dachshund usually understands what you want him to do, and he can do it, but he thinks he knows a better way, and he invariably tries his way first. As a result, he is never trained in anything that is really difficult. A dachshund seems to be always poking fun at one and getting no little amusement out of it for himself. Cattle are easily trained, but they are more or less unreliable, and they are such flatterers. They make you think things are all right and then they run away at the very first opportunity. In preference to other dogs, cattle are trained almost exclusively in the militia of Vienna for carrying in time of war, messages and rapine to and from the camp and the sick soldiers, but they are chosen more for their speed than their faithfulness. Fox terriers are natural acrobats. Within a few weeks one can be trained to turn a somersault. A few weeks more and he will do a double somersault. To teach him to do this the trainer calls the animal to him, and as he comes jumping playfully against the trainer he is caught and turned quickly in the air, much to his surprise. He thinks it is play, and he comes jumping up again. After each turn he is given a small piece of meat. In a few weeks he will run up and try independently to do the turn over in the air for the meat, and if he is encouraged it will not be long before he is an accomplished acrobat.—Leslie's Weekly.

ERRATIC ENGINES

Locomotives That Act as Though They Were Bewitched.

You never see a ship launched on a Friday, and similarly a new locomotive hardly ever makes a trial trip on that day or on the 13th of the month. Even though the superintendent may peer at the superstitious, yet he knows too well to set it at naught, for just as sailors consider that some ships are unlucky so do train hands credit certain locomotives with a sort of demoniacal possession.

It is certainly very strange the difference that may be observed between two locomotives built from the same plans at the same time, of similar material. One goes on her way quietly and smoothly, never breaks down, costs little or nothing for repairs. The other causes trouble from the very first, runs off the line, kills the drivers, gets into accidents of all kinds and generally acts as though possessed by some evil spirit.

There was a famous instance some years ago on the South Florida railway. A locomotive killed so many people that she got the name of "the hearse," and no fewer than three engine drivers actually left the employ of the company rather than continue driving her. The old thing was that she never seemed to injure herself. Eventually the owners were forced to break her up, although she was by no means worn out.

Of actual ghosts in trains or railway engines one very seldom hears.—New York Herald.

A Doubting Thomas.
She—Did you let father know you owned a lot of house property? He—I hinted at it. She—What did he say? He—He said, "Deeds speak louder than words."

A Common Delusion.
One of the commonest of delusions and one of the fastest is where a man thinks he's in a hurry.—Puck.

No man can enjoy life or feel that he is really living who has no work to do.—Success Magazine.

A Trite Saying.
It is a trite saying that no man is stronger than his stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidney troubles. If you take this natural blood purifier and tonic, you will assist your system in maintaining a healthy condition of rich red blood, that is favored by nervous, run down, debilitated people. It is usually the effect of poisons in the blood; it is often indicated by pimples, eruptions, itching of the skin, the face, Dr. Pierce's Discovery cures all blood humors as well as liver trouble. It makes one vigorous, strong and forceful. It is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for the purpose of containing neither alcohol nor harmful ingredients, and which has the professional endorsement of the leading medical authorities of this country. Some of these books of extracts from standard medical works will be sent to any address upon receipt of request therefor by Dr. J. C. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It tells you the "World of Health" is made of ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Discovery is composed, by leaders in all the several schools of medical practice, and the recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Golden Medical Discovery" is adapted, should have far more weight with the sick and afflicted than any amount of the so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public by those who are afraid to let the ingredients of which their medicines are composed be known. Bear in mind that the "Golden Medical Discovery" has the badge of honesty on every bottle wrapper, in a full list of its ingredients.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, invigorate the liver and regulate stomach and bowels.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

A Wise and Beneficial Move.

In accordance with a resolution passed at a meeting of the Sonoma Valley Union High School Trustees held on the 1st inst., and published elsewhere in these columns, the erection of a new building will be commenced to take the place of the one that was irretrievably damaged by the recent earthquake, as soon as the necessary funds are available.

This is a wise move on their part, as our High School has done much the past few years to attract desirable families to locate among us, and in these modern times no community can hope to prosper and keep up with the progress of the times without providing proper educational facilities for our youth.

The members of our High School Board of Trustees are representative citizens and taxpayers from the nine different parts of the valley comprising the group of school districts composing the High School Union. These Trustees, bearing in mind always the best interests of the whole people, will undoubtedly adopt some business-like and feasible plan to raise the necessary funds for building a new High School building and save to the valley its principal educational institution. This being the case we trust that the people of Sonoma Valley will accord to them their hearty co-operation and support in this matter.

A Judicial Candidate.

Hon. John A. Barham of this city is announced as candidate for Judge of this Appellate District. It will be readily admitted that his qualifications for the place are superior. He is a strong man intellectually and a studious and successful attorney. In the practice of his profession Judge Barham takes little for granted. He is a regular digger after the facts, the laws and the precedents applying to every case that he takes. Such lawyers usually give great satisfaction as judges, and it is confidently believed that our former Congressman for several terms is especially well qualified for the judicial position for which he will be supported by his friends.—Santa Rosa Republican.

UNITED STATES SENATOR PERKINS has placed us under obligations this week for a handsomely bound copy of the "Memorial Address on the Life and Character of Robert T. Burke," delivered in the House of Representatives and Senate on February 8th last.

The extraordinary session of the Legislature convened in Sacramento last week by Governor Pardee has passed among other laws an enactment extending the time for the delinquency of State and county taxes to July 16th.

EL VERANO.

By Occasional.

Thos. Baines, our real estate man, is spending the week in San Francisco.

Jack Daughney of the D. & B. Saloon is transacting business in Oakland this week.

John Lafontaine went to San Francisco Monday to look after insurance on the Bongoster Hotel.

John Steward, chief engineer for the Pacific Steamship Company, is spending the week at the Villa.

Harry Granice, the popular editor of the Index-Tribune, was a S. P. passenger for Santa Rosa Wednesday.

Alexus, the bus driver of the Bellevue Hotel, spent the fore part of the week visiting the ruins in San Francisco.

Mr. Debat, the El Verano fisherman, is still doing the angling act. He succeeded in landing a dozen pike the fore part of the week.

A large crowd from this place will go to Sonoma Saturday evening to attend the entertainment given by the convent children.

The El Verano Lumber Company is now doing a rushing business. Several carloads of lumber arrived Wednesday and the rush is now on.

The opening dance at El Verano Villa last Saturday evening was a grand success. Over fifty couples attended and all had a jolly good time.

Mr. Chauncey Boozer, the dude of our town, is the real thing among the summer girls, and all you can see is Chauncey there, and Chauncey here, and you're the real thing Chauncey boy. He's a sport, but he don't know it.

Marion Gros, an up-to-date and first-class mixologist of San Francisco, is the new man at the Exchange Saloon. Any one wanting wet goods would do well to see him, as he is there with the large cool steams.

The little town of El Verano was full of excitement last Monday when the report reached here of the mixup between Prof. Nolan and Dr. Byron at Sonoma. Many arguments could be heard pro and con, and several fights were near at hand, while each talked for the man they thought was right.

J. Albert Dutil and Johnnie Algren were Cal. Northwestern passengers for San Francisco Sunday morning.

Miss Lydia Jose, the charming young cashier of the once famous Poodle Dog restaurant, San Francisco, spent the forepart of the week visiting friends in this place.

The summer is on in this place. Large crowds arrive daily, and the summer girl is once more in our midst. The country boys have taken their rigs from the shed after a hard winter, and it is a common thing to see a charming young Frisco fairy in a top buggy telling a home boy all about the terrible earthquake and the ruins of San Francisco.

The bond of Mrs. Eva Luff, as guardian of the estates of Genevieve Luff and Hale Luff, was filed in court Monday.

Pass Resolutions of Grateful Appreciation While Returning from Mexico.

The following resolutions were adopted by the members of the California Press Association by unanimous vote on board their special train on April 21, 1906, on the return trip from the City of Mexico:

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY CALIFORNIA PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Whereas, The California Press Association is now nearing home after one of the most interesting and instructive excursions in its history, and which was also one of the most delightful with respect to courtesies extended, facilities provided and places visited—its pleasure being marred only by the great disaster which has just befallen the central coast section of our beloved State; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we endeavor to express—in so far as mere words can express—our grateful appreciation of the public spirited generosity, the kind courtesy and the genuine hospitality extended us.

We feel ourselves indebted to the railroad companies for providing us with a splendidly equipped and ably managed special train, in which we have traveled and lived, not only comfortably but luxuriously, for two weeks, covering a distance of more than five thousand miles, from San Francisco to the City of Mexico and return.

And not only would we acknowledge the public spirit and liberality of the railroad companies, but would extend our thanks personally to the men in charge of our train and to James Horshburgh Jr. and H. R. Braden of the Southern Pacific, John J. Hyne and E. Gregory of the Santa Fe; H. C. Ascher, general agent of the Mexican Central in San Francisco; J. C. McDonald, assistant general agent, agent in the City of Mexico, and the other officers and agents of the railway of our sister republic, who so kindly cared for us while we were in the City of Mexico.

We would also thank the Pullman Company and District Superintendent Lincoln at San Francisco for providing us with cars at a very low special rate at a season when they are in great demand.

En route we were provided with delicious refreshments through the thoughtful kindness of various California friends to whom we make grateful acknowledgments: To the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, the San Antonio Fruit Exchange of Pomona, the Fullerton Fruit Exchange, and the Fruit Association of Redlands, for delicious oranges; for sweet lemons to the Los Gatos Driving Club; for the supply of delicious cigars for the gentlemen, Blake, Moffitt & Towne; and for the ladies, the Los Gatos Driving Club.

While in Mexico we were most cordially received by United States Ambassador Thompson, who arranged for our visit to the National Palace and our reception by that gracious gentleman and distinguished patriot, soldier and statesman, President Diaz, a courtesy and an honor we will appreciate and shall ever cherish. Our thanks are due and are hereby tendered to Ambassador Thompson for his kind offices and to President Diaz for his gracious courtesy.

Among others who extended us hospitality in the City of Mexico were Paul Hudson, president and manager of the Mexican Herald; Manager Barrett of the Evening Record; W. L. Vail, a former California newspaper man, now engaged in the banking business in Mexico, and Orrin's Circus.

To all of these individuals, companies and institutions, and to those to whom we may be indebted hereafter, but who are not mentioned here, we give sincere thanks.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Association, that engrossed copies of them be sent to Ambassador Thompson and to President Diaz, and that copies be sent, with reference to publication to the newspapers of the City of Mexico, and to the members of this Association.

RESOLUTION OF SYMPATHY AND SUPPORT.

Whereas, A great disaster has befallen the city of San Francisco and the central coast section of our beloved State,

Resolved, That the California Press Association and the individual members and towns and the inhabitants thereof offer sincere sympathy; and that we pledge them our hearty support in the heroic efforts which we are confident they will make to restore order, resume business and rebuild larger and better than ever.

RESOLUTIONS OF APPRECIATION.

Whereas, It has been the annual custom of the California Press Association to make visits to the various points of interest on the American continent,

Resolved, That President Friend W. Richardson and Secretary R. H. Jury, together with the members of the Executive Committee of our Association, be and let them be known in selecting for the year 1906 the beautiful and historic city of Mexico with its surrounding wonders. It is an evident fact that a trip beyond the confines of the United States entails unusual effort. The securing of the splendid concessions from the three railroad companies over whose lines our journey took us, the Southern Pacific, the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe, and the Mexican Central, and the arrangement of the numerous details was an undertaking that called for weeks of untiring energy rightly directed. While we are now returning post haste on a sorrowful mission, we cannot fail to express in this feeble way our deepest appreciation of the untiring, painstaking and splendid efforts of our President and Secretary to make the trip to Mexico one long to be remembered. Notwithstanding the fact that our president has for much of the time been ill he has never failed to look out for the interests and comfort of the members of the party.

When the sad news of the catastrophe on the Pacific Coast reached us, despite the fact that it appeared that the relatives and property interests of both of these gentlemen were in the stricken district, they laid aside all thoughts of self and did all in their power to comfort the members of the party and prepared for a hasty but comfortable journey home. Be it further

Resolved, That through the splendid efforts of President Richardson and Secretary Jury our excursion has been a most pleasant and profitable one, and to these meritorious gentlemen all praise is due.

RESOLUTION TO BRADEN.

The members of the California Press Association, en route homeward from their journey to the City of Mexico, would count themselves denied one pleasure, were they not permitted to personally express their appreciation of the constant effort on the part of H. Robert Braden, the special representative of the Southern Pacific Company, who assisted in planning the trip, and accompanied the party through this wonderful and of the Western Hemisphere, whose ruins and mute carvings on the imperishable rocks tell of a civilization that, both in age and in development, may have rivaled that which flourished by the Euphrates and the Nile.

Mr. Braden's knowledge of Mexico, which was always at our service, his never failing courtesy, and his unnumbered personal kindness to every member of the party, along with the rich field to which he led us, combined to make the trip not only one of pleasure but of education and information, the value of which will grow with the passing of the years.

And so highly do we appreciate his services, thus so cheerfully performed, that we ask him to accept this as a personal testimonial from ever member of the California Press Association's party to Mexico.

J. P. BAUMGARTNER, Secy.

WILL N. SPEEGLE, J. B. SANFORD, WM. E. MACKENZIE, R. C. HARRISON, Committee.

Attest: FRIEND W. RICHARDSON, President. R. H. JURY, Secretary.

THE BYRON-NOLAN CASE IS POSTPONED

Will Not Come Up for a Hearing Until June 28th.

The Byron-Nolan case, which was to have come up for a hearing before the State Board of Education at Berkeley on June 7th, has been postponed. As stated in these columns a couple of weeks ago both parties waived the statutory notice of thirty days, and State Superintendent of Public Instruction Kirk set the case for trial before the State Board of Education at Berkeley on June 7th, and one day last week so notified both Dr. Byron and Prof. Nolan.

Dr. Byron then wrote to Superintendent Kirk that the time was too short and he could not get his witnesses together, although Prof. Nolan is ready with his witnesses, and it is claimed by his friends is anxious to go on with the case.

The following letter from Superintendent Kirk to Prof. Nolan explains the whole matter:

Mr. Walter C. Nolan, Sonoma, Cal.—Dear Sir: I am to-day in receipt of a letter from Dr. Byron in which he informs me that owing to the shortness of the time before the next meeting of the State Board of Education, which will be held in Berkeley, June 7th, he will not be able to prepare his side of the case for hearing at that time. As I have heretofore stated to you, the State Board of Education would not be willing to go ahead with the case on June 7th unless both sides were ready, and in as much as Dr. Byron has notified me that his side will not be ready on that date, I hasten to inform you of such fact that you may not be put to expense or trouble in the premises. At the meeting I shall present the charges and the Board will probably instruct me to give both parties the customary thirty days' notice of the hearing. Just when such hearing will be held I cannot now state, but probably about the 1st of August. As soon as the exact date is determined you will be notified. This is simply to inform you that the case will not come up for hearing at the meeting to be held on June 7th at Berkeley. Very truly yours,

THOMAS J. KIRK,
Supt. Public Instruction,
Sacramento, June 1, 1906.

Later advice from Superintendent Kirk's office in Sacramento says that he has set the date of hearing of the case for June 28th and 29th, Prof. Nolan and Dr. Byron having both signified their intention of being ready with their witnesses on those dates.

Presentation Convant.

The Convent School closed June 8th. Examinations were held this week and some pupils will receive diplomas. The students will give an entertainment in Union Hall this evening.

The historic drama "Which is Which" will be rendered by the young ladies of the academy. There will also be vocal and instrumental numbers on the program besides some pretty drills by the younger pupils.

An enjoyable evening is promised to all who attend. Refreshments will be served. An admission to the hall will be charged and the proceeds will help the Sisters to repair the injuries done to the classrooms by the earthquake of April 18th.

The demand of sailors at San Francisco for an increase of $5 per month has been refused, and the Steam Schooner Owners' Association has laid up practically all of their vessels for an indefinite time.

Ayer's

Why is it that Ayer's Hair Vigor does so many remarkable things? Because it is a hair food. It feeds the hair, puts new life into it. The hair

Sunday at Congregational Church.

The morning services in the Congregational Church to-morrow will be conducted as usual by Rev. Mr. Cragin. The topic of his sermon will be "St. Peter and the Keys." The Primacy of St. Peter will be a part of the Sunday School lesson of the day. In the evening the pastor's topic will be "Elijah's Contest with the Priests of Baal."

NOLAN AND BYRON ENGAGE IN SCRAP.

Meet on the Street and Pummel Each Other.

The long-expected happened last Monday when Prof. Nolan, principal of the Sonoma Grammar School, and Dr. A. E. Byron, a local practicing physician, came to blows in front of the Postoffice building.

The scrap was witnessed by a number of bystanders, but it is hard to get accurate details of the encounter. There are two stories to the fight and we refrain from giving either, as the whole matter will, or ought to be, ventilated in the courts.

In the encounter which followed the meeting between the parties Dr. Byron received a black eye and came out second best, being knocked down by Prof. Nolan, who is an athlete.

It is said Dr. Byron attempted to draw a weapon during the melee but was prevented from using it. It is also reported that when City Marshal Alberson attempted to separate the belligerents he was seized by bystanders and kept back and prevented from performing his sworn duty as a peace officer.

The Sonoma Valley Booklet

The booklet descriptive of this valley which was being compiled and edited by Celeste Granice-Murphy previous to the earthquake, will make its appearance in due time. Many of the pictures and manuscripts were destroyed by the fire in San Francisco, having been sent to a printing firm in that city. The pictures have already been reproduced and Mrs. Murphy is going ahead with the booklet and will again have the matter in the hands of the burned out printing firm, which has established quarters in Oakland.

At a recent meeting of the Trustees of the Sonoma Valley Union High School the following resolution was passed without a dissenting voice:

ROBERT HALL WEDS MISS DENIA CARTER

Leads His Bride to Altar at Sacramento.

Mr. Robert Hall, a prominent and well-known farmer of this valley, was married in Sacramento last Monday evening to Miss Denia Carter of Madison, Nebraska. The ceremony took place at the Landson home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boyd, Rev. G. S. Swain, rector of the Trinity Episcopal Church of that city performed the ceremony in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. T. M. Craig of Corning, Mr. Wm. Williamson and son, and other intimate friends of the contracting parties.

After the marriage ceremony, which was followed by a sumptuous wedding dinner, the happy groom and his handsome bride left Sacramento on the 10:50 p. m. Pullman cars for Truckee, and are now spending their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and its romantic surroundings.

Ninety new members were initiated into Napa Parlor of Native Sons on Monday night and the members of Sonoma, Calistoga and St. Helena parlors were present in a body. Superior Judge Seawell was one of the speakers of the occasion.

Mr. James Wilson, of Kenwood, is quite ill.

Miss Hulda Justi visited in Sonoma last Thursday.

John Bergier transacted business at the county seat on Thursday.

A number of Glen Ellen people visited Santa Rosa last Wednesday.

The vineyards in this vicinity were greatly benefitted by the late rains.

On Thursday last Adolph J. G. Giovanni, age 21, and Lizzie May Baldocchi, age 18, of this place, visited the county seat and secured a marriage license from County Clerk Wright.

B. Davidson, who recently purchased the Griswold property at Kenwood, is having the old mansion put in first-class condition. New paint and plaster and a gas plant are among the improvements.

There is to be another delightful Hard Times ball in Glen Ellen to-night. The Woman's Improvement Club of Glen Ellen made such a success of their Hard Times party last year that they thought they would try it again, especially as it would be very appropriate just now. Be sure to come and wear old clothes. You'll be fined if you don't.

CHANGE IN COUNTY BOARD EDUCATION

W. O. Hocker and Miss Cavanaugh Succeeded by H. R. Bull and L. Good.

At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors, held last Tuesday, the question of making a change in the personnel of the County Board of Education came up for discussion, the occasion being the expiration of the terms of W. O. Hocker of this place and Miss Ella Cavanaugh of Petaluma, who have served on the Board the past two years.

It was the sense of a majority of the Supervisors that a change be made, and upon motion Prof. H. R. Bull, principal of the Healdsburg High School, and Principal Leander Good of the Sebastopol school were elected as members of the Sonoma County Board of Education to serve for two years.
